EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Notification D. No. 5 dated 10*th July* 1920.

Under Article 172 of the Mysore Service Regulations, Mr. B. Tirumalachar, B.A., Personal Assistant to the Inspector-General of Education, is granted twelve days' privilege leave on full pay from the 29th June 1920.

Notification No. 6, dated 10*th July* 1920.

ABOLITION OF RETAIL SALES OF EDUCATIONAL TEXT-BOOKS IN THE CENTRAL BOOK DEPOT AND THE INSTITUTION OF RECOGNISED AGENCIES FOR THE SALE OF SUCH PUBLICATIONS.

In accordance with Government Order No. 11212-3—Edn. 21-17-16, dated the 27th May 1920, the retail sale in the Government Central Book Depot, Bangalore, of Educational Text-Books and other publications which are not classed as "Official Publications" will be abolished with effect from the 15th August 1920.

II. To facilitate the sale of Departmental Text-Books and other Educational Publications to the public, reliable and competent commission Agents will be appointed in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore and at District headquarters. There shall be at least two such Agents in each of the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore.

The terms of appointment of the Agencies will be as follows :—

1. The Agents shall bind themselves by contract on proper stamp paper:

i. To retail the Departmental Publications at not more than the published prices to be fixed by the Inspector-General of Education from time to time. Authorized copy of the published or fixed sale prices shall be posted by the Agent in his sale room prominently to the view of the public.

ii. To make proper and sufficient arrangements for the sale of these publications to the public at convenient hours of business.

iii. To keep proper accounts of sales and stock balances and to afford facilities for their inspection by the officers of the Education Department from time to time.

iv. To render proper cash and sale accounts monthly to the Curator, Government Central Book Depot, not later than the 5th of the month following, with treasury receipts payments in full settlement of all dues.

2. An 'On sale' account will be given to each Agent and stocks to the extent of specified credit limits will be issued to the Agents "On Sale or Return."

3. The Credit limits for Agents and Government Branch Depots will be as follows :—

	Rs.
i. For Agents in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore.	1,000
ii. For Agents at District headquarters	500
iii. For Agents at Taluk headquarters or Middle School Centres.	250

4. Each Agent shall furnish cash security or reliable Bank References to the extent of the credit limit allowed to him and he shall hold the departmental stock issued to him at the call of the Government Central Book Depot till they are sold and accounted for.

5. Accounts shall be rendered monthly by the Agents and books not sold and returned by them to the Government Central Book Depot in good condition within three months from the date of issue of stock in each case will be accepted and credits given in account for such returns.

6. The amounts due from the Agents at the end of each month after deducting the commissions due to them shall be paid by them into the nearest Government Treasury and the Treasury Receipts forwarded to the Curator, Government Central Book Depot for record and necessary credit being given in the accounts.

7. A trade discount of 15 per cent will be allowed to the appointed Agents and Government Branch Depot-keepers on the value of sales of all Departmental Educational Publications except the four Kannada Readers printed and published for the Department by the Bangalore Press, the discount on which will be only 12½ per cent for the present.

8. The appointed Agents shall also supply when required non-departmental texts and other books to Government schools at the most reasonable market rates and submit duly endorsed bills for such supplies to the Inspector-General of Education for adjustment.

9. Non-compliance with any of the abovementioned conditions or other grave irregularity that may be noticed in an Agent's transactions with the Government Central Book Depot will involve not only the immediate forfeiture of the agency but also such part of the security amount as may be deemed necessary in the discretion of the Inspector-General of Education to compensate for the loss, if any, to the Department or inconvenience to the public.

III. Applications for the Agencies should be made to the Inspector-General of Education in the form specified below not later than the 31st July 1920.

IV. No Bookseller or Bookselling Firm not on the approved list published with G. O. No. Fl. 3238-87—G. F. 10-17-47, dated 4th January 1918 and supplements thereto can be appointed a Departmental Agent as explained above unless the applicant first obtains Government recognition.

V. With the abolition of the retail sales in the Government Central Book Depot from the 15th August 1920 as stated above, there will be no cash transactions or sales of the Department publications below the net value of Rs. 100 at a time in the Government Central Book Depot.

VI. Non-money orders or cash remittances of sale values except those relating to official publications shall be accepted at the Government Central Book Depot from and after the 15th August 1920.

VII. Booksellers other than appointed Agents may obtain wholesale supplies of Departmental Publications at the present rate of trade discount of 12½ per cent of published prices on wholesale purchases of the net value of Rs. 100 or more at a time on the following terms :—

i. All sale values or approximate sale values shall be first remitted into the nearest Government Treasury and the Treasury receipts shall be sent with the indent for supplies to the Curator, Government Central Book Depot.

ii. With a view to minimise the incovenience that may be caused to booksellers by the remittances to the Treasuries of sale values of indents for which there may not be full supplies available in the Government Book Depot and consequent trouble of frequent refunds of sale values, booksellers are advised to tender a fixed deposit at the Treasury of the approximate average amount of their indents and draw supplies to the extent of the fixed deposit which should be kept recouped as supplies are made.

iii. Not more than two indents nor indents worth more than Rs. 750 from booksellers in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore and Rs. 500 in the case of other booksellers shall be accepted from a single bookseller in a week without the express permission of the Inspector-General of Education in each case.
